

New layout for Visa cards

Beginning on 1 September 2005, newly issued Visa cards may be equipped with a new logotype and updated security properties. For example, the cards have a new holographic magnetic strip. Today's Visa hologram has been moved from the front of the card to the new holographic magnetic strip on the reverse side.

Current Visa cards will be in circulation and remain valid until 2010.

